37. If an owner of a lot shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants herein, it shall be lawful for any other lot owner, the Homeowners Association or Developer to prosecute any proceedings at law or in equity against the person or persons violating or attempting to violate any such covenant either to prevent him or them from so doing or to recover damages or other dues for such violation. In the event it becomes necessary for the Developer to incur cost or expenses in enforcing or complying with the terms of these covenants the Developer shall be entitled to recover said cost and expenses including a reasonable attorney fee from the violating party.
